From Fr. Simon

During the baptism of infants there is a part of the rite called the “Ephphatha,” where the minister of baptism touches the baby's ears and mouth, saying: “The Lord Jesus made the deaf hear and the dumb speak. May he soon touch your ears to receive his word, and your mouth to proclaim his faith, to the praise and glory of God the Father.” In today’s Gospel story of the healing of the deaf mute, we are reminded of the connection between hearing and speech. Only after the deaf man is able to listen can he learn to speak.

In the last couple of months, it has become clear that our Church continues to have a listening problem. We have been reminded of the repulsive actions which were committed against innocent children and the failure of people in charge, especially bishops, to hear accusers, to act on those allegations and to remove those who were predators from access to potential victims. This has left me, and the members of the Church, hurt and angry. Trust was betrayed, responsibility ignored, selfish interest trumped values and transparency jettisoned for secrecy. We must be vigilant to ensure decisive actions of justice and compassion for victims and that the consequences of the law be applied to predators at this moment and in the future.

I want to assure you dear people of Queen of All Saints that creating a safe environment of trust in which our children can learn and grow is of paramount importance to me and the priests of the parish. A recent audit from the Office of Children and Youth confirms that we continue to be in full compliance of all safety guidelines and regulations set by the Archdiocese of Chicago and Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) protocol. I want you to know that as your pastor, I am open to hear your concerns and to explore ways to better serve and protect our children.

While it is true, that the body of Christ, our Church, is infected with abuse and deceit, the John Jay study (see below) has shown that four to six percent of the priests were part of the problem. It is important to note that the number of priests and bishops, nuns and religious who want to be part of the solution is much bigger. The more we look at the Church the more we will realize its imperfections. Let us look a little more at Christ and one another, celebrate the relationships we have forged within this community called ‘church’, support one another through these difficult times and pray and support our priests and bishops so that we no longer are deaf to the cries of the victims and to be their voice for justice and compassion.

Blessings!

IMMIGRATION, IMMIGRANTS, AND REFUGEES

This weekend of September 8–9 across the Archdiocese of Chicago, we will reflect as a people of faith on immigration and the plight of immigrants and refugees arriving in our nation. Government officials and our elected representatives have the responsibility to develop sound and humane policies and regulations that reflect the values of our great nation. Beyond policies for immigration, however, there are immigrants and refugees, real people like us who deserve our attention, concern, and care. They are men, women, and children, many of whom are desperately fleeing the violence of their home countries. What does this mean? And, practically speaking, what can we do? These are the questions will take up as we listen to the word of God and pray for enlightenment.

Thursday, September 13th

Celebrating Our Sacred Stories

By: Rachel Hart Winter, Ph.D.

Pay attention. Be astonished. We will pause to honor our sacred stories. There will be time to reflect on the stories that fill the chapters of our own lives. We will take time to image our future and the ways in which our attention, astonishment, and storytelling will fill our lives with wonder and gratitude. We will use scripture, poetry, the stories of female saints, literature, and music to inspire our reflections and sharing throughout the day.

Rachel Hart Winter, Ph.D. is an ethical theologian who graduated from Lehigh University with a Bachelor of Arts in Behavioral Neuroscience, earned a Master of Theological Studies degree at Loyola University Chicago, and recently completed her doctoral dissertation: Just Water: A Catholic and Feminist Response to the Commodification of Water. Her theological interests lay at the intersection of ecology and theology, drawing from the Bible, Catholic social teaching, ecotheology and feminist theory. During her years at Loyola, Rachel also worked in both University Ministry and at the Joan and Bill Hank Center for the Catholic Intellectual Heritage. Previously, she served as a Jesuit volunteer in the Marshall Islands and as associate director and operations manager at Jesuit Volunteer International.

Sep 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28 at 6:00 PM

Sep 23 (Sun) at 1:30 PM

Sep 24 (Mon) at 5:30 PM

Sep 29 (Sat) at 7:15 AM (Mass with reception to follow)

San Lorenzo Ruiz was born in 1600 in Binondo, Manila to a Chinese father and Filipino mother who were both Catholic. He was an altar boy growing up and was educated by Dominican Fathers. He was a member of the Confraternity of the Rosary. Ruiz was a husband and father to a daughter and two sons.

He left the Philippines in 1636 and moved to Japan where he suffered terrible persecution and was cruelly tortured and martyred. Despite the severe torture he endured he never lost his faith. Ruiz died on September 27, 1637.

Lorenzo Ruiz was beatified by Pope John Paul II during a Papal visit to Manila on February 18 1981. Ruiz was later canonized in Rome on World Mission Sunday October 18, 1987. St. Lorenzo Ruiz is the first Filipino Saint venerated in the Roman Catholic Church.

Special September 11th Mass for First Responders at St. Mary of the Woods

St. Mary of the Woods parish and school are pleased to invite you to a special Mass on Tuesday, September 11th, at 10:00am honoring and praying for the First Responders amongst us. Active duty and retired police, firefighters, military, paramedics, hospital personnel including nurses and physicians, flight attendants and all of first response, along with their friends and families are most cordially invited.

All first responders are requested to come in uniform or to wear mementos of their time in service. A special blessing of first responders will precede the distribution of a patron-saint medal to them. Please join us as we remember those lost in terrorist attacks and those who protect us each and every day of our lives.

QAS YOUTH MINISTRY

The Youth Ministry will have their first Teen Mass today, September 9th at 4:00pm in the Holy Name Room. Pizza and Open Gym will follow.

Our Six Flags trip will be next Sunday, September 16th following the 9:30am Mass. Please email qasym@qasparish.org for more information.

Ministers of Care

Each Sunday QAS Ministers of Care serve twenty homebound parishioners and Catholic residents of two nursing homes... and we've just been asked to serve a third. During the past year several of our ministers have had to resign after many years of service. In order to continue serving the number of people we do, we desperately need more ministers. Please consider becoming a minister of care by enrolling in the formational classes at St. Benedicts:

Formation Classes: The five-week training for new Ministers of Care who bring Communion to our ill and elderly brothers and sisters each Sunday will begin Wednesday, September 26th. The location again will be Presence St. Benedict Home in Niles. Chaplain Rick Nash and retired priests who live at Presence St. Benedict will be facilitating these classes on five consecutive Wednesday evenings, from 7-9 pm. This program is also open to seasoned Ministers of Care who may wish to attend one or more sessions as continuing formation.

For further information or to register, contact Carole Eipers at the Rectory.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time —September 9, 2018

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?"
JAMES 2:5

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first in all things and realize that material things really don't matter and that it's more important to share with those who have less.

Our Financial To-Do List

Capital Campaign.

- Maintain individual pledge payments on schedule.
- Seek new pledges and increases in existing pledges.
- Complete Phase 1 (Benedict Center) on time and on budget.

Basilica Repairs.

- With the ceiling project completed, begin work on bell tower this fall, with completion in the spring.
- Recognize that our borrowing from our savings to fund these two major projects will need to be repaid, so that our long-term savings are fully replenished.

Sunday Collections.

- Achieve a significant increase in Sunday collections in order to generate operating surpluses which can be used to replenish our long-term savings.

Our Basilica Repair Work Continues

- We began repairs of water damage around the transept windows during the summer, to include replacing the caulk around the storm windows as well as repairs to some of the support rods holding the stained glass windows in place. We also took the opportunity to clean the stained glass windows before reinstallation. We hope you can see the difference when we removed 60 years of grime! The windows along the side aisles will also require some repairs, which will be scheduled over the next few years.
- The deteriorated marble behind the side altars has been removed and will be replaced with a modern lightweight replacement material similar to what was used in the sanctuary behind the main altar a few years ago. Currently there is a temporary substitute in place until all exterior stone work is completed.
- Our biggest current project will be to make masonry repairs to the bell tower, which will begin later this year.

Is it time to join your fellow parishioners who have already made the move to electronic giving?

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.

Today's Readings

First Reading: Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! (Isaiah 35:4-7a)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146)

Second Reading: Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him? (James 2:1-5)

Gospel: And the people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him (Mark 7:31-37)

Hello Parents!

The QAS Moppets & Me Ministry is a social play group for moms, dads and their children ages 0-5. We meet on selected Thursday mornings (usually twice per month) at the Rectory. Toys are provided, volunteers bring snacks to share and parents and tots have a low-key place to build community. New and veteran families are invited, so please join us!
