

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

NOVEMBER 18, 2018

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22
8:00AM & 10:00AM

FROM FATHER SIMON

It's official! Queen of All Saints School has been named a 2018 National Blue Ribbon School. The announcement was made on October 1, 2018 by U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos. Queen of All Saints School is one of 49 'non public' schools from across the country that received this prestigious honor at an impressive ceremony in Washington D.C., on November 8, 2018. The Blue Ribbon Schools Program recognizes schools whose students achieve at very high levels.

This award is a testament to the dedication and hard work of our principal and faculty. At Queen of All Saints School, we are constantly striving to ensure that the academic program we deliver meets the needs of our students, while encouraging them to do their best. I want to thank our principal Kristina Reyes, and our faculty for their hard work to achieve this honor.

Each time I walk through the school, I realize that Queen of All Saints School was already a Blue Ribbon school. We have a dedicated staff that truly puts children first in all they do. We have active parents who want the best for their children, and a parish community that strongly supports its parish school. Our students enjoy being here to get the best Catholic education possible. With all these stakeholders in place and many prayers, we have earned national recognition for our school. Congratulations and keep up the good work!

This week, as a nation we pause to celebrate Thanksgiving. Our tables will be spilling over with food and our homes will resonate with laughter and conversation as we celebrate this national holiday. While we dedicate one day out of the year as Thanksgiving Day, as Catholics, we are called to give thanks every moment of our lives. I try to thank God for three particular things every day at the start of my period of quiet prayer. I have found it to be very beneficial to me - if I am doing it consistently (some weeks are better than others). A small step like this each day can help to change our perspective on life by focusing on the good that is already given to us, and away from the things we think we need or from past failures.

Thanksgiving Day is a special time to remember the blessings we have received from God, so that we can be a more thankful people every day. The reasons for having grateful hearts make up a long litany: the gift of life itself, faith in a God who loves us and is very near to us, good health, loving family, caring friends, opportunities to serve, food on our tables, roofs over our heads. Yes, we have our times of doubt, our aches and pains, our family conflicts, and our economic struggles. But, in spite of all these challenges, we are incredibly blessed!

So join us for Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 8am or 10am. Our 10am Mass is a special liturgy. At the end of Mass I will bless loaves of bread that you can bring home and connect your family's table to the Eucharistic table. Happy Thanksgiving!

Blessings!

FROM KRISTINA REYES

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of the Queen of All Saints administration, faculty and staff I would like to take this opportunity to thank the parish community for your kind words and support upon receiving the National Blue Ribbon Award.

The National Blue Ribbon Award recognizes both public and private elementary, middle and high schools based on their overall academic excellence or their progress in closing achievement gaps among student subgroups. The National Blue Ribbon School Award affirms the hard work of students, educators, families and communities in creating safe and welcoming schools where students master challenging content.

This year Queen of All Saints School won the Blue Ribbon Award in the category of “high performing” which means that the achievement of our school’s students placed in the top 15 percent in the nation in both reading and math.

We are truly honored to receive this prestigious award. This award validates the hard work of the entire Queen of All Saints School community, especially that of our faculty, staff, students and parents. It serves as a reminder that everything we do is focused on creating an environment where all are valued and encouraged to strive for success.

Our school is very blessed to be part of the Queen of All Saints Community and we look forward to continuing the important work of educating our students intellectually, physically, emotionally and spiritually.

Sincerely,
Kristina Reyes, principal

Collection for the Campaign for Human Development

There will be a second collection this weekend to support low-income communities and those who work at organizing an economic development.

The belief is that those who are directly affected by an unjust system are best equipped to change the system. The Campaign for Human Development works to break the cycle of poverty by awarding grants, raising awareness of the root causes of poverty and building bridges of solidarity in Cook and Lake Counties. This annual collection is the primary source of funds for grants to support community-controlled, self-help organizations and transformative education. This past year over $632,000 was raised in the Chicago metropolitan area.

IN TRUE THANKSGIVING

Thursday, November 22nd at 10:00am

At our Thanksgiving Day Mass we will pray for members in our community serving in the military. In the midst of the holiday season, it is important to show gratitude for their great sacrifice of service and dedication to freedom, as well as their swift homecoming. Anyone in the military, veterans and their families who would like to participate in the Mass, please contact Paul Scavone at the rectory.

There will also be an 8:00am Mass on Thanksgiving morning. If you have a loved one or friend currently serving in the military, please contact Michael Jolls at the rectory so that we can include them in our prayers and this listing in the bulletin. On behalf of Queen of All Saints, thank you for your service.

Stewardship

Queen of All Saints Basilica

Committed to Christ,

sharing God's gifts, building the Church together

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time — November 18, 2018

"And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory." MARK 13:26

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" how will you respond?

Stewardship — Thanksgiving Prayer

Thanksgiving is an American holiday with a distinctly religious foundation, one with a special focus on our obligation of stewardship and generosity to each other. This year, as we gather together as families and friends, let us pray:

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks.

Thank you for all the graces and blessings you have bestowed upon us, both spiritual and temporal - our faith and religious heritage, our food and shelter, our health, the love we have for one another, our family and friends.

Dear Father, in your infinite generosity, please grant us continued grace and blessings throughout the coming year.

This we ask in the Name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother. Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
