

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

JANUARY 6, 2019
THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The Community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

FROM FATHER SIMON

The most common decoration for Christmas is the tree. However, in India, almost all Christian homes put out a star - a sign to others that Christ is the 'light of the world' and a reminder to Christians that they are to reflect the light of Christ through their words and works.

The story of the Magi touches our Catholic imagination. We print it on Christmas cards, sing about it in carols; reenact it in pageants; and, today, celebrate it in liturgy. In some ways it symbolizes the journey each Christian must make.

Three strange figures follow a star. Kings perhaps. Probably they are priest scientists from ancient Persia who observe movements of stars in the heavens. The ancient world regarded stars as signs of the supernatural; as capable of affecting human destiny. In any case, the Magi go on a journey. It leads them to Bethlehem and to the Christ child.

The Magi take expensive gifts. They expect to meet someone of cosmic importance. Instead, they meet a poverty stricken child in a stable. Yet, the meeting is a moment of profound spiritual illumination. These 'givers of gifts' are given a gift – the gift of recognition.

This child is both their destination and their destiny. He is the ONE they seek. He is the light of the world - the revelation of God to humankind. Gold, frankincense and myrrh pale into insignificance compared to this gift of recognition.

The journey of the Magi is a journey from darkness to light, from ignorance to recognition, from material attachment to spiritual fulfillment, from doubt to faith. It is a journey of conversion.

Each of us must make the same spiritual journey. Often we do not know exactly what we are looking for in life. As best we can, we seek authenticity and ultimate meaning. We follow our own interior lights and inspirations. But, ultimately, we know that we need to be enlightened by a light brighter than even our best intuitions.

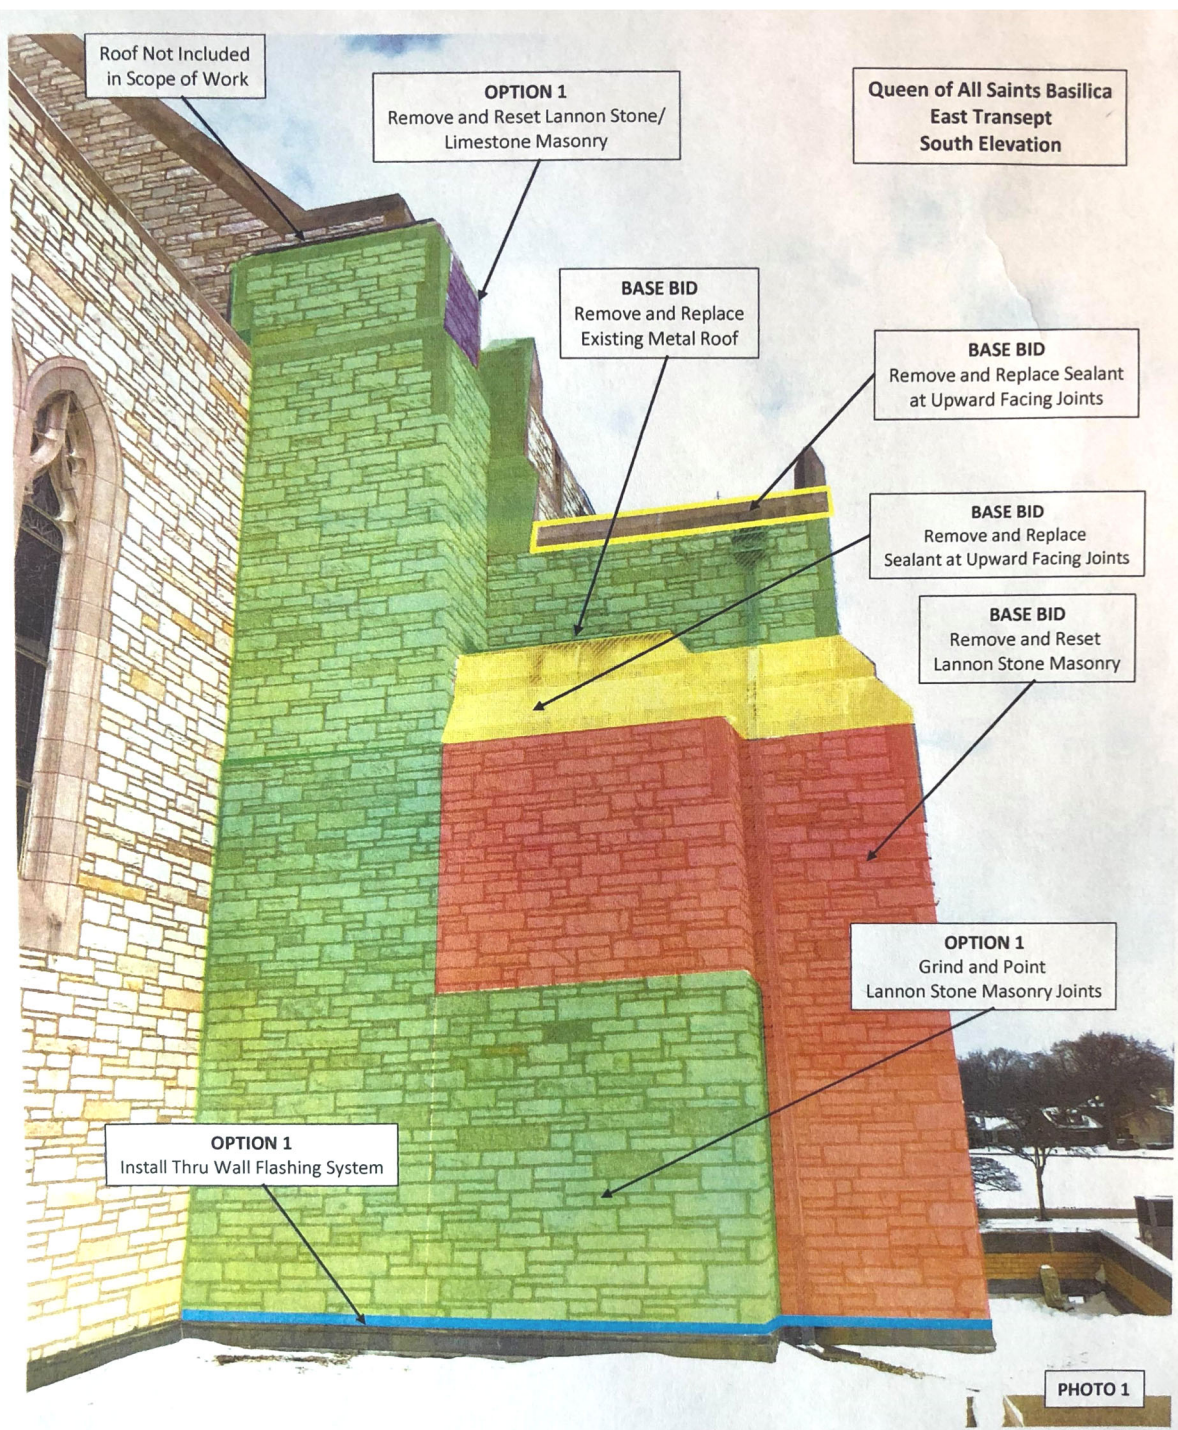

The feast of the Epiphany, coming as it does at the start of a new year, is an opportunity to direct our inner gaze on the Christ child and allow him 'to call us out of darkness into his own marvelous light', to be given the gift of recognition by the One who is 'the light of the world.' The journey of the Magi continues in each Christian.

Update on Construction Projects: The comprehensive renovation of the Benedict Center continues to be on schedule. Last week a crane was employed to lift up the rooftop units for air-conditioning. Ionia Avenue has been trenched for the new water connection that will feed the sprinkler system in the building. This work had to be done while the school was on a break. The old elevator has been decommissioned and removed and the shaft is being readied for a new elevator. The new windows are in, the framing completed on the second and third floors and we are awaiting an inspection before we proceed with insulation and drywall.

The bell tower renovation has been shut down for the winter. We have sealed the flat roof area around the west side of the tower that was the source of water infiltration into the choir loft. We have also completed the through-wall flashing as well as some rebuild of the deteriorated brick structure. The major part of the work will resume in spring when the rest of the tower will be scaffolded. This will enable us to complete the project by fall.

Regarding the transepts - while working on the ceiling last year, we noticed that the marble on the side altars was cracked and deteriorated to the point that they could not be salvaged. When we removed the marble we noticed that the brick was damp. On further exploration we were advised to address the sources of the leak before we put back the marble. After receiving a scope of the work to be done from our structural engineers Wiss, Janney, Elstner Associates, I am happy to report to you that work on the east transept will begin this week. Fixing the roof leaks, tuck-pointing and removal and replacement of sealants will be part of this project. The work on the west transept will be done in spring. Only after we are satisfied that the water infiltration issues have been addressed will we then replace the marble that is already cut and ready to be installed. The sketch gives you an idea of the work that is being done.

Blessings!

Stewardship

The Community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD — JANUARY 6, 2019

"...the Gentiles are co-heirs, members of the same body, and co-partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel."
(Ephesians 3:6)

Today we celebrate that Christ came to all of us, not just the Hebrews. He has given each of us unique gifts. We all have different yet equally valuable roles to play in the Body of Christ. Pray daily and ask God how He wants you to use your gifts so that we may all "be one".

Stewardship in the New Year

The start of a new year is a great time for us to take another look at our support of our parish. Committing to stewardship of time, talent, and treasure is an important part of living a Christian life, and real Christian living asks a lot of us and is not easy. Making a commitment to stewardship is a serious challenge with today's emphasis on materialism, the "me" generation, taking care of ourselves before others, and focusing on wants instead of meeting needs.

It is important to invest in our relationship with God and recommit ourselves to the life of a good steward by making a promise of our time, talent and treasure for the coming year. In order to do that, we must enter into our decision to give intentionally, plan to make good on the decision we make, and budget our time, talent and treasure so our gifts are proportionate to what we have been given.

As we decide on our personal giving decisions, let's keep this in mind:

Intentional If we give "just because," that is not intentional. That does not show understanding of our call to stewardship. As a steward, we make a deliberate decision to live out the Christian life in a certain way. That way is to thank God for all His blessings by returning to Him a portion of our time, talent and treasure.

Planned As with any life event, we must make plans and adjustments to ensure important things take place. This is true in our sacrificial giving as well. We must plan ahead and make stewardship of time, talent and treasure part of our lifestyle and budget.

Proportionate In biblical tithing, a percentage of one's income is given back in gratitude to charitable causes. But a tithe applies only to financial gifts. In stewardship, an intentional decision is made to give a certain percentage of one's time, talents and one's income. This expands the tithe to what it should be – proportionate giving of ALL gifts.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
