

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

JANUARY 13, 2019
THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

FROM FATHER SIMON

In the opening verses of the Book of Genesis, we are told that the earth was formless and void, literally ‘total chaos’, and the Spirit of the Lord hovered over the waters. God divided the cosmic sea to create a three-tiered universe: the sea, the heavens and the earth. God brought order to the cosmic sea by gathering the waters covering the entire face of the earth into seas, and established their boundaries rooting the earth in the primal sea. Confining the sea itself is depicted in Genesis as an aspect of divine power. In the book of Exodus, God parts the waters of the Sea of Reeds to redeem Israel and fill them with awe and holy fear.

The image of Jesus emerging from the waters of the Jordan after his baptism is meant to remind us of God’s dominion over chaos, death and destruction. The picture of the Holy Spirit descending from Heaven like a dove echoes the Book of Genesis, which tells of the Holy Spirit “hovering” over the tumultuous, primal sea.

Similarly, the story of Jesus’ baptism is told with all the trappings of a divine epiphany and echoes with references to both Genesis and Exodus. Jesus parts the waters, the Holy Spirit hovers, and a voice from Heaven proclaims Jesus “my beloved Son.” The story of Jesus’ baptism, therefore, stands as the link between the stories of God’s saving acts in the Old Testament beginning with creation itself, and the advent of a new creation in the life and ministry of Jesus. Through the Incarnation, the scriptures emphasize that Heaven and Earth are reunited, and a new relationship with God is established. As we emerge from the season of Christmas and enter the liturgical season of “ordinary time,” let us meditate afresh upon how our world has been irreparably changed by the coming of God in Jesus of Nazareth. Let us be mindful that He who brought order to the primal chaos will bring order to the uncertainty and chaos of our everyday "ordinary lives".

As we enter into Ordinary Time, allow me to express, on your behalf, a word of gratitude to the many who made it possible for us to celebrate the beauty and the mystery of the Incarnation.

To the members of the Men’s Club who braved the cold to set up and take down the nativity scene that many have captured on their digital devices. May it be imprinted on our hearts.

To Mary Asnis and Gia DeCarlo and their team of helpers who decorated the inside of the basilica enhancing the beauty of our worship space...

To the ushers, sacristans, altar servers, lectors and Eucharistic ministers for helping us celebrate the mysteries in a dignified and reverent manner...

To Dr. Ken Sotak, Paul Scavone, the choir and instrumentalists for giving us a taste of heavenly music...

To our maintenance staff who put up the lights outside and made sure the basilica and its facilities were ready for the celebrations...

To all others who in one way or another contributed their time and talent to enhance our experience of Christmas at the basilica... THANK YOU!

Blessings!

Stewardship

Queen of All Saints Basilica

Committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts, building the Church together

Baptism of the Lord — January 13, 2019

*“John answered them all, ‘I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit... ’”
(Luke 3:16)*

The Catholic Catechism states that “Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will.” In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

Our New Year’s Resolution — To Review and Adjust Our Giving

Thanks to everyone who has responded to our call to increase their giving by at least 20% in recognition of our increased operating costs, including

- the sudden and unexpected need to replace our Basilica ceiling in 2017/18,
- to repair the Basilica bell tower in 2018/19,
- and other necessary expenses to maintain our parish ministries and liturgies for all members of our parish at every stage of our lives.

Thank you. Thank you.

Our Second New Year’s Resolution — To Modernize Our Giving

Is it time to join your fellow parishioners who have already made the move to electronic giving?

It’s safe, convenient and dependable.

Just go to the parish webpage at qasparish.org, click on the GiveCentral logo and follow the prompts.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
