A few comments from our listening session...

Ten days ago, we had a ‘Listening Session’ for our parish on the issue of clergy sex abuse. About twenty people attended this session. The focus of the evening was two-fold:

1. to give people a chance to express their feelings in the face of this continued crisis within the Church, and
2. to formulate questions and concerns that the authorities, our Holy Father and the Bishops, should address not only at the Vatican Summit but into the foreseeable future.

Among the feelings expressed were disappointment, sadness, confusion, being left out and let down, challenged, frustration with the lack of communication, the need to be strong in our faith and, finally, a willingness to be a part of the solution.

The questions could be broadly summarized into three categories:

- 1) Accountability and Transparency – Will there be an independent lay review board that will have oversight of the actions, or failure to take action, on the part of the bishops and leaders? Will this board include professionals, and if so, to whom will they report? We need transparency of the whole process.
- 2) Future – Are those preparing for the priesthood emotionally mature and psychologically and sexually healthy? Are they trained to minister in our contemporary culture? Is there a way to screen out potential sexual predators? What plans are in place, if any, to address the shortage of priests?
- 3) Victim Survivors and Abusers - Will there be a meaningful relationship between the Church and victim survivors? How does the Church deal with the priests found guilty in a caring way? What kind of Christian care and concern does the Church extend to them?

These questions were forwarded to our vicar, Bishop Mark Bartosic, who in turn will bring it to Cardinal Blase Cupich who will discuss them at next month’s Vicariate Listening Session. The current Vatican Summit on clergy sexual abuse is another step on a painful journey for all of us to understand abuse, to take the necessary steps to prevent abuse, to care for the victims and to make sure that no case is covered up or buried. I ask for your continued prayers for victims of abuse and the entire Church as we continue the process of cleansing and healing.

Looking forward to Lent...

Ten days from now we will enter into the holy season of Lent – a season of grace that offers us an opportunity to grow in our relationship with God and heal and restore broken relationships.

In our preparation for Lent, we tend to wait until Ash Wednesday to decide ‘what we want to give up for Lent’. True, we must embrace the Lenten disciplines of fasting, almsgiving and prayer. Coming up with ideas for actions and practices during Lent is not a problem. We will find many things ‘we can do’ or ‘give up’ during Lent.

As we prepare for Lent, let us anticipate that something wonderful is going to happen. Let us through the next ten days mull over the question, “What does God want to give us?” This will allow us to focus on God, force us to listen to the spirit and challenge us to new ways of discipleship. Discipleship, incidentally is the theme of the Parish Mission this year. Please mark your calendars to be with us for about an hour or so from Monday, March 11 through Wednesday, March 13, in the evening beginning at 7:30pm. The Parish Council will suggest practices based on fasting, almsgiving and prayer to help us in our Lenten journey. Please watch for the calendar in upcoming bulletins.

Blessings!!

Eucharistic Ministers Wanted

We are in need of many new Eucharistic ministers, those who share the Body and Blood with the assembly at Mass. It is a wonderful calling to participate in the sacred nourishment of your fellow parishioners.

According to liturgical guidelines, anyone considering this ministry should be a baptized Catholic in good standing with the church, who attends Sunday Mass regularly. The minister will be a person of faith who believes in God, follows Christ and trusts in the Holy Spirit.

The ministry of Extraordinary Minister of Communion is open to any parishioner, high school age or older. Because of the flexibility in serving with no specific schedule, high school students are especially encouraged to consider this ministry. Ministers simply sign up in the Sacristy for a station at whichever Mass they happen to attend.

There are two training sessions scheduled for new Eucharistic ministers. You need only attend one of these. The training dates are: Saturday, March 16 at 11:30 am or Thursday, March 21 at 7:30 pm.

Experience the joy of serving the Body and Blood of Christ to the Body of Christ!

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Understanding Our Parish Finances

We rely on three main sources of funds:

- Sundays, Holidays, UPP - This is our regular revenue and is by far the largest source of funds to pay for our parish operations. In a sense, this is what “keeps the lights on,” by paying for our staff, our routine repairs and maintenance, and the other day-to-day costs of running the parish.
- Long-Term Savings - We are blessed with savings resulting from the generosity of the past, including parish and school endowments. The earnings from these accounts is used to supplement our regular revenue to balance the budget and, on occasion, to pay for extraordinary repairs. We have recently drawn upon our savings deeply to pay for unanticipated Basilica repair costs, including the ceiling project, the bell tower project, and other repairs (see photo on right of Sacred Heart side altar project) and now need to take steps to replenish those savings. We will need a significant increase in our Sunday collections to pay ourselves back and restore our savings back to a prudent level.
- Capital Campaign - Our capital campaign drive will be used to make our older parish buildings (the Benedict Center and the Lemont and Keene Avenue buildings) more suitable for today’s and tomorrow’s needs, including making better use of space for school needs and for the needs of our increasing numbers of lay ministries. Our new construction projections require us to raise our pledge target from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000, and we have already raised $200,000 of that new target. Please consider how you can help us reach our new goal.

We believe that a well-informed parish membership deserves an explanation of parish finances. Please be as generous as you can in your Christmas and other year-end giving to our parish.

Today’s Readings

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back.”

- Luke 6:35

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Mercy and compassion will put us on the path to holiness.

Basilica Repairs

Water-damaged stone work is being replaced behind and above the Sacred Heart side altar. Next year work will continue on the St. Joseph side altar. These unanticipated repair costs come from the parish endowment which is in need of replenishment. Please think about increasing your Sunday donation.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.

Annual Catholic Appeal

This weekend, our parish will be conducting the Annual Catholic Appeal In-Pew Commitment Weekend. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme “Come, Follow Me... and Share the Word” was selected to remind us to continue to answer Jesus’ call to follow Him in thought, word and deed by providing the necessary contribution to fund ministries and services to share God’s love with many others in our Parish and our Archdiocese.

Each pledge makes a difference! All parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes to deliver needed services. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.
