Still Beloved After All These Years

Presented by Lynn Ann Reesman

How have I discovered who I am and whose I am? How has that changed over time? How have I been called and am I being called to give my life away? Might I dare find it in my heart to give my death away too? What might that mean? What can move me through this life journey, particularly the second half of life, with integrity, hope and joy? Reflect upon and rejoice in the path for fullness of life as we consider some tantalizing commandments for the long haul that lead us to the depth, wholeness and holiness, accompanied each step of the way by the One Who Loves Us more than we can ask or imagine.

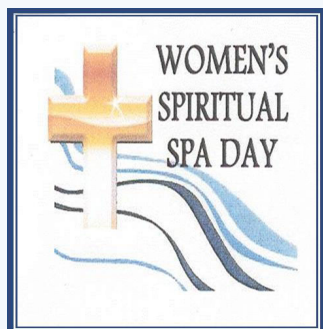

Lynn Ann Reesman is a wife, mother of six, grandmother of three, an educator, former director of adult ministry at St. Gabriel Parish in Hubertus, WI, retreat facilitator and spiritual director. She has been an educator for over 30 years and served in Milwaukee Public Schools and Catholic Schools as a teacher, reading specialist and principal. She teaches for the Sustaining the Mission program through Cardinal Stritch University, conducts retreats and accompanies others in their lives of faith as a spiritual director. Her love for Ignation spirituality was nurtured over the past 40 years at Gesu Parish, the Jesuit Retreat House on Lake Winnebago, Marquette and Creighton. In addition to her education degrees, she holds an M.A.P.A. degree in Pastoral Studies from St. Francis Seminary, an M.A. in Christian Spirituality and a certificate in spiritual direction from Creighton.

RCIA Inquiry

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA is a process for those considering becoming Catholic.

Specifically, it is:

- For those who are not baptized and are in the process of making a decision to become Catholic
- For those who were baptized in another faith and are thinking of becoming Catholic
- For those who were baptized Roman Catholic and have not yet received Eucharist or Confirmation

The process is designed to assist those interested in Catholicism to learn about our faith, our traditions and our celebrations. Each person is invited to reflect on his or her own relationship with God and the faith community. We journey through this process together, assisting each other in our response to God's call. If you or someone you know is interested in participating in the RCIA, please call (773) 736-6060, ext. 238, to speak with Fr. Walter Cheboi for more information. Classes are on Thursday evenings beginning in September.

From the Archives

Before Queen of All Saints (Part II)

In 1889, the town of Jefferson, whose boundaries included where the current QAS campus sits, was annexed to the City of Chicago. However, because the newly acquired land was so far north of Chicago's main hub of action (about 9 miles), the city services were unable to reach this area. The roads specifically were too muddy to travel.

Throughout the 1900s and 1910s, about fifty families accumulated into this area. By 1925, there were enough Catholic families to form a modest congregation at a store on Peterson Avenue for Sunday Mass. They were able to recruit a priest from a nearby tuberculosis sanitarium to say Mass. This practice continued for about four years until these Catholics petitioned Cardinal George Mundelein to formally establish a parish in the neighborhood.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
