

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

OCTOBER 6TH, 2019

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

At the outset, I want to thank you for your prayers for those on the pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I do assure you that we remembered you in our prayers. We had a spirit-filled pilgrimage that exceeded the expectations of almost all of us. We were a little delayed in getting home, due to the thunder storms in Chicago last Friday, so it was about forty hours from the wake up call in Jerusalem to when we landed in Chicago – I don't think it can get any more 'biblical' than that.

One of the things we did at the beginning of the trip was to share with the group why each one of us was coming on this trip and what were our expectations. Invariably, almost all answered that they want to know more about their faith and grow in their relationship with Jesus. Something similar is happening in the gospel today.

What the apostles ask Jesus in our gospel today is impressive. "Increase our faith!" They do not ask that the people should say nice things about them. They do not ask that they should succeed by human standards. Rather, they ask just one thing, "Increase our faith!" They are asking for the things that are really the most important: a profound and solid faith, an unshakable trust in God. This means building all hope in God, holding everything in His hands, even when there is great trouble and when a strong contrary wind is blowing in their faces.

The saints come to mind when I think of such strong faith. They provide a firm handhold for others and give them confidence. Yet, what do we imagine when we talk about a 'strong faith'? Jesus' reply gives us food for thought: "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." This is something quite impossible indeed, but even if your trust is as small as a mustard seed it is nonetheless strong and effective when it means trusting in God and not just in your own strength.

We may think that we will just not be able to manage it, but we can trust that God will help us nevertheless and that the Almighty will do things the way he chooses. Jesus expounds upon this in another parable. The servant has to deal with all of his tasks and only then can he rest. He is not deserving of any particular thanks if he has only performed his duty and done what he should. Do your part and God will do His part. Saint Ignatius of Loyola put it like this, "Act as if everything depended on you, and pray as if everything depended on God." Having faith does not mean taking it easy and letting everything take its course. We have to do what we can, but God will grant what is decisive. Dear God, please strengthen our trust in that!

Blessings!!

RCIA Inquiry

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA is a process for those considering becoming Catholic.

Specifically, it is:

- For those who are not baptized and are in the process of making a decision to become Catholic
- For those who were baptized in another faith and are thinking of becoming Catholic
- For those who were baptized Roman Catholic and have not yet received Eucharist or Confirmation

The process is designed to assist those interested in Catholicism to learn about our faith, our traditions and our celebrations. Each person is invited to reflect on his or her own relationship with God and the faith community. We journey through this process together, assisting each other in our response to God's call. If you or someone you know is interested in participating in the RCIA, please call (773) 736-6060, ext. 238, to speak with Fr. Walter Cheboi for more information. Classes are on Thursday evenings beginning in September.

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

Bereavement Support Group

When a loved one dies we grieve and it can feel overwhelming. Healing is an active process and it requires emotional, physical, intellectual and spiritual energy. Most of all it requires compassion towards self and deep faith and trust in God's loving presence. Life is now changed but through time and grief work we learn to integrate the death of a loved one into our heart and soul.

Still Beloved After All These Years

Presented by Lynn Ann Reesman

How have I discovered who I am and whose I am? How has that changed over time? How have I been called and am I being called to give my life away? Might I dare find it in my heart to give my death away too? What might that mean? What can move me through this life journey, particularly the second half of life, with integrity, hope and joy? Reflect upon and rejoice in the path for fullness of life as we consider some tantalizing commandments for the long haul that lead us to the depth, wholeness and holiness, accompanied each step of the way by the One Who Loves Us more than we can ask or imagine.

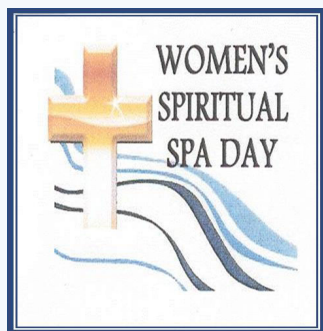

Lynn Ann Reesman is a wife, mother of six, grandmother of three, an educator, former director of adult ministry at St. Gabriel Parish in Hubertus, WI, retreat facilitator and spiritual director. She has been an educator for over 30 years and served in Milwaukee Public Schools and Catholic Schools as a teacher, reading specialist and principal. She teaches for the Sustaining the Mission program through Cardinal Stritch University, conducts retreats and accompanies others in their lives of faith as a spiritual director. Her love for Ignation spirituality was nurtured over the past 40 years at Gesu Parish, the Jesuit Retreat House on Lake Winnebago, Marquette and Creighton. In addition to her education degrees, she holds an M.A.P.A. degree in Pastoral Studies from St. Francis Seminary, an M.A. in Christian Spirituality and a certificate in spiritual direction from Creighton.

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Fall Stewardship — A Time to Recommit to our Parish

If you are a regular reader of this page you know that our parish has much to be grateful for and a wonderful capacity to face the challenges of the future.

Thanks to the ongoing generosity of our parishioners through our Sunday, Christmas and Easter collections, and our one and only parish-wide fundraiser, the United Parish Program, our parish operations have been able to break even in recent years.

However, on the capital side we encountered a series of major expenses in recent years, including the replacement of the basilica ceiling and extensive repairs to the basilica bell tower, as well as a host of other water-related repairs which tend to afflict buildings the same age as ours.

Fortunately, we were able to pay for those expenses by drawing on our savings, which were prudently set aside by those who came before us for precisely that type of unforeseen problem. We were able to begin repairs promptly before our problems got worse.

The good news is that we've addressed our immediate problems. The challenging news is that we are left with a serious hole in our savings. Now it's time to address that problem.

We need to move from mere break-even operations to instead generating at least $5 million total surplus over the next 10 years to replenish our savings and restore our parish's financial position and better ensure our shared future. We will be talking more about this throughout the month, including how we can achieve this goal in the generous spirit that has always characterized the people of Queen of All Saints Basilica parish.

Today's Readings

*"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control."
(2 Timothy 1:7)*

Many of us compartmentalize our faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighboring party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
