Meet Our New Staff Members

My name is Jenna Patitucci and I am the new Coordinator of Religious Education (CRE). I am a graduate of Loyola Academy. I did my undergraduate studies in religion at DePaul University, and I received my Masters in Religious Education from Loyola University. I have been in parish ministry since 2010, working as a CRE, Youth Minister and Director of Religious Education. I am super excited to be joining the Queen of All Saints community! I look forward to getting to know the families and parishioners of Queen of All Saints.

Hi, I am De Anne Glomski and I'm the newest member of the rectory secretarial staff. I am delighted to be here. My parish is Our Lady, Mother of the Church in the O'Hare area, where I served as secretary and bulletin editor for the last three years. I am married to David and have a son, William. At the parish, I served in many capacities - catechist, substitute teacher, choir member, Worship Band member and cantor. I look forward to meeting you and assisting you in any way I can.

Queen of All Saints Basilica Bereavement Support Group

When a loved one dies we grieve and it can feel overwhelming. In many ways, grief work is the most difficult work we will ever do. Healing is an active process and it requires emotional, physical, intellectual and spiritual energy. We all grieve in our own personal way, but we need not grieve alone. Others who are grieving are on a similar journey and we can all be uplifted by journeying together. We are grace-filled when we open ourselves to the support of fellow travelers.

Thank You from The Well of Mercy!

"The Well of Mercy is a home for women and their children when they need one most-when they've been abused, when they've been abandoned, and when they're broke and broken." Tribune

In order to help the families out of poverty and abuse we rely on the generous individuals and organizations. Please convey our personal thanks to the parishioners for putting the corporal works of mercy into action. The St. Vincent de Paul Society warmed the backs of the moms and children through the winter coat collection. They included the Well of Mercy families in the Giving Tree as well. The families had "the best Christmas in their lives" as stated by one of our 4-year-old children (Amara). The eighth-grade class under the direction of Cathy Carroll and other teachers and parents made the building sparkle with their day of service. Fr. Simon remembers The Well with a gift of money from the collection basket. Some children have collected gifts and cleaning supplies in lieu of receiving birthday gifts for themselves. The women of WAX include the families who live at The Well for Santa's workshop! This has become a tradition at The Well, and an event that the families talk about throughout the year.

We love our neighbors to the west (Queen of All Saints) ! You warm our bodies and our hearts. We are so very grateful for all the donations and prayers. When our world seems so dark, Queen of All Saints shines brightly! Thank you everyone!

With the Peace and Joy of the Infant Child Jesus,

Thank You from Catholic Charities!

Catholic Charities fulfills the Church's role in the mission of charity to anyone in need by providing compassionate, competent, and professional services that strengthen and support individuals, families, and communities based on the value and dignity of human life.

With the holidays behind us and Celebrations of Giving 2019 completed, I wanted to take some extra time to thank our largest supporters. I extend my deepest gratitude to you and everyone at QAS. Your willingness to donate your time, resources, and energy to aid our work serving those in need is inspiring. The value of QAS' participation year in and year out is immeasurable. And I'm personally so appreciative since it was my first year - knowing QAS has it down to a T was comforting! Just extremely grateful.

Wishing you an amazing 2020!

3 Ways to Replenish Our Savings

Regular readers of this page know we were in the fortunate position to be able to borrow from our long-term savings accounts (our endowments) to fund:

- repairs to our basilica ceiling
- repairs to our basilica bell tower
- the completion phase of our capital campaign, primarily the sorely needed restoration of the former Rose Room in the basement of the Lemont building to its original purpose as a parish center.

We have begun a drive to restore our savings by at least five million dollars over the next 10 years, while at the same time maintaining the same level of parish services to all parishioners at every stage of their lives, from the very young to the very old.

There are a number of ways by which our parishioners can be a part of this effort, the most obvious of which is simply to increase our regular Sunday offertory collection. This is our most important source of ongoing support, and the excess over our budgeted needs will be deposited into our parish endowments.

But there are other possibly less obvious ways by which our parishioners can help replenish our endowments, once they have made their contribution to our parish operations through their Sunday offering. These gifts will be made directly to our endowments:

- The Blue Envelope (explained at the right)
- A check sent to the rectory made out to Queen of All Saints Parish, with a notation earmarking it for direct deposit to parish endowments
- A planned giving option, such as a gift of appreciated securities, a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA (if you are at least 70-1/2 years old) or by including our parish in your estate planning. For more information, please contact our business office.

Please consider how you can help us achieve our parish financial needs, for the present and for the future.

Today's Readings

"... they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord..."

- Luke 2:22

How seriously do you take being a Catholic? Is "being Catholic" something I just do when I attend Sunday Mass or attend one of my parish functions? It's easy to be Catholic then, it's harder to be Catholic when I am out in the world. Would someone recognize you as a Catholic by the way you act, dress, and talk? How do you present yourself to the Lord and to others?

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated at 1:30pm two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
