

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

A Roman Catholic Church

FEBRUARY 23, 2020

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

We will begin the season of Lent on Wednesday February 26, with ashes on our foreheads. What do we make of this smudging? Here at Queen of All Saints we have Masses at 6:30am, 8:30am and at 2pm as well as prayer services at 12 noon, 4:30pm and 7:30pm during which we have the imposition of ashes. It is safe to say that we have more people go to church on Ash Wednesday than on any other day of the year. The queues to receive the ashes in many churches are endless. Why? Why are ashes so popular?

Their popularity, I suspect, comes from the fact that as a symbol, ashes are blunt, primal and speak the language of the soul. Something inside each of us knows exactly why we take ashes: “Dust you are and to dust you shall return!” Ashes are dust and dust is soil, humus; humanity and humility come from there. It is no accident that ashes have always been a major symbol within all religions. To put on ashes, to sit in ashes, is to say publicly and to yourself that you are reflective, in a penitential mode, that this is not “ordinary time” for you, that you are not in a season of celebration, that you are grieving some of the things you have done and lost, that some important work is going on silently within you.

To facilitate this growth within us, the Church encourages us to observe the three disciplines of Lent – almsgiving, fasting and prayer. The Parish Pastoral Council offers us several suggestions to observe these disciplines in a special way commemorating the 90th anniversary of our parish with a plan called ‘90 for 90’.

Just a further elaboration of these Lenten disciplines: almsgiving is generally understood as giving money or goods to those in need but in a broader context almsgiving can also be understood to include other kinds of charitable acts of service. We might also want to consider forgiving someone against whom we have held a grudge for years and approaching the sacrament of reconciliation that is offered on Saturdays from 8:30am and every Monday in Lent from 7 to 8pm.

Fasting - yes, it is that time of the year when we consider the question “what am I giving up for Lent?” The purpose is not to grovel in guilt, or become smug about will power and self-restraint, but to free ourselves from bondage to our appetites so as to be available to God. Lent isn’t simply about us “giving up” something. The real grace is when we recognize that Lent is a season in which God wants to give us something. God wants to help us transform our lives.

Prayer is particularly important in Lent, as we strive to set right our relationship with God. Prayer helps us do that by keeping open communication with God - we talk to God and we await and listen to God’s response. As we present our needs, we recognize our dependence on God and grow in our trust in his promise to provide what we really need. As a parish community, in light of my letter last weekend, I ask you to pray especially for our parish as a whole and for those involved in this disturbing investigation. May our prayer be for a resolution to this incident and a healing of all concerned.

May our journey through Lent provide us an opportunity to walk more closely with Jesus, who desires our presence, sometimes more than we desire his.

Blessings!!

Fr. Simon

Lenten Regulations

Each year the holy season of Lent provides us with a special time of grace and spiritual renewal so that we may become better instruments in sharing the Gospel message. All members of the Christian faithful in their own way are bound to do penance in virtue of divine law.

The faithful are encouraged during Lent to attend daily Mass, receive Holy Communion, participate in penance services, and receive sacramental absolution. We are also encouraged to take part in public and private exercises of piety, give generously to works of religion and charity, perform acts of kindness toward the sick, aged, and the poor, to practice voluntary self-denial, especially regarding food, drink and worldly amusements, and to pray more fervently, particularly for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Fasting and Abstinence

All adults up to their 60th year are required to fast. According to Canon 97, #1, a person who has completed the 18th year, is an adult. The day of fast during Lent is Ash Wednesday, February 26 and during the Triduum, Good Friday, April 10.

All persons 14 years of age or older are required to abstain from meat products on Fridays during Lent, as well as on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Meat and products including meat are not to be eaten.

LENT 2020

Dear Parishioners,

The season of Lent is a time of renewal and reflection, when we are encouraged as followers of Christ to participate in prayer, fasting and service. The Lenten journey of each person is a personal expression of faith. All Queen of All Saints parishioners and students are invited to participate together and support each other this Lenten season in a special way to commemorate the 90th Anniversary of our parish.

What is “90 for 90”? Well, it’s what you make it. Can you add 90 seconds of prayer to your day? Could you read 90 Psalms? Can you donate 90 diapers to a charity? Is it possible to go 90 minutes without your phone? Ninety of something may sound like a lot, but what you do and how you do it is up to you. It’s not a contest, competition or checklist, but a way to challenge ourselves to look at what we say and do in preparation for the Resurrection of Christ this Easter.

The suggested items on our list are just a starting point; your Lenten journey is your own. There is room for every person, every family, every ministry to put their own personal touch on it. Many ministries will be hosting “90 for 90” events, and we hope you will join in if you can. A great way to start is to spend some time at our upcoming Parish Mission with Fr. Corey Brost on March 2, 3 & 4.

Christ inspired us to offer others mercy and care and encouraged us to imitate his actions. To inspire and encourage our parishioners and students, we hope you will share your good works by going a little beyond discrete actions. Please consider writing down your “90 for 90” prayer or practice and placing it into the receptacle at the front of the Basilica. Additionally, we hope that you will consider sharing your personal Lenten journey on social media using the hashtag #qas90for90. We hope the stories of the generosity and faith of our community will inspire you on your own Lenten journey.

*Blessings to you and your family,
The Queen of All Saints Parish Council*

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Stewardship during Lent A time to recommit to our parish

If you are a regular reader of this page you know that our parish has much to be grateful for and a wonderful capacity to face the challenges of the future.

Thanks to the ongoing generosity of our parishioners through our Sunday, Christmas and Easter collections, and our one and only parish-wide fundraiser, the United Parish Program, our parish operations have been able to stay in the black in recent years, with little to spare.

However, on the capital side we encountered a series of major expenses in recent years, including the replacement of the basilica ceiling extensive repairs to the basilica bell tower, the completion of Phase III of our capital campaign, as well as a host of other water-related repairs which tend to afflict buildings the same age as ours.

Fortunately, we were able to pay for those expenses by drawing on our savings (our endowments), which were prudently set aside by those who came before us for precisely this type of unforeseen problem. We were able to begin repairs promptly before our problems got worse.

The good news is that we've addressed our immediate problems. The challenging news is that we are left with a serious hole in our savings. Now it's time to address that problem.

We need to move from mere break-even operations to instead generating at least five million dollars total surplus over the next ten years to replenish our savings and restore our parish's financial position.

We will continue talking about this throughout the year, since our parish members deserve the whole story, including how we can achieve this goal in the generous spirit that has always characterized the people of Queen of All Saints Parish.

Please consider how you can help achieve our parish financial needs, for the present and for the future.

Today's Readings

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." - Matthew 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done, no doubt. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It allows us to have a little more empathy for "our enemy." When we pray for others, even "our enemies," maybe it softens their hearts as well.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated at 1:30pm two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
