FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

Before Thanksgiving we oscillated between hoping and planning to gather in person to celebrate the national holiday. Some of us may have accepted that this may not be a wise decision and are uncertain if it will be the same for Christmas.

As we begin the season of Advent, our experience of the past holiday allows us to grieve about physically distanced celebrations but also allows us to move from the weight of that loss to the hope of possibility - from lament to creativity.

Advent looks back in order to look forward. The celebration of the first coming of Christ in the stable at Bethlehem has meaning and purpose because of hope and expectation of his second coming on the clouds of glory. Christmas is not simply a celebration of an event that occurred some two thousand years ago. This first coming of Jesus Christ includes his birth, public life and ministry, his death and resurrection and his continuing presence among us. This is what we celebrate in the Church's liturgy, especially the Eucharist; it is also at the heart of Christian mission which sees Christ present in every person, tribe, people and nation, as throughout the whole of creation. Advent is an effectual preparation for what is to come.

As such, Advent begins in penitence. Its color is purple, the symbol of preparation and forgiveness. We reflect on our lives, and realize our inadequacies. However, we do not remain focused on ourselves, for Advent calls us to look joyfully to God, who is coming to complete his salvation. Advent hymns and readings are thus full of happy expectation of his imminent second coming. Yet it is important to remember that we do not know the day nor the hour. Advent candles and Advent calendars count down towards Christmas Day, but the Advent season enjoins us not to put preparation off to tomorrow but to be ready now.

During this season of Advent, I invite you to give yourself the gift of a few moments each day to pray with your family around the Advent wreath. As the darkness of this pandemic seems to overwhelm us, gather with your family and light a candle and offer a prayer of hope for ourselves and our world, so that the coming of the Savior may bring comfort and joy to our ailing world.

If you live alone or just want to be by yourself, light a candle and just sit either with eyes closed or just watching the flame dance on the candle. Waiting. Quietly waiting for God to speak to you.

This is what Advent is all about. Listening to the quiet in our hearts, waiting for the whisper of God. Isn't this what we do as we wait for the wonder of Christmas, the birth of Christ? Isn't this what we have been doing for centuries as we await the return of Christ at the end of time? Wonderful waiting! Listening!

Blessings!!

Fr. Simon

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN RCIA

Last Sunday five RCIA inquirers participated in the Rite of Acceptance. In the Rite of Acceptance there is a change in identity where those previously known as inquirers become catechumens and candidates.

The Church officially welcomes the catechumens and candidates as disciples, members (although not yet full members) of the household of faith. During the rite they are literally marked with the cross of Christ by both the priest and their sponsors. The rite is the "first consecration by the Church" for those seeking Christian initiation.

After the Rite of Acceptance our now catechumens and candidates begin the period of the Catechumenate which will continue until Lent. During this period, the initial conversion is deepened and appropriated. Each person comes to know more and more deeply the love of God in her or his own life and in the midst of the church community. A further dive into the beauty of the church focusing on liturgical living, the sacraments, and the Catholic life will be the focus of our RCIA sessions.

The church community also takes responsibility at this time to lift up the candidates and catechumens. The church is meant to be a source of support and prayer. Please continue to pray for our five amazing women in RCIA. If you would like to send them a card of support and encouragement please drop it off at the rectory.

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS ORNAMENT

LETTERS FROM SANTA

November 28th through December 18th

Santa's Mailbox is located on the west wall of the rectory porch at 6280 N Sauganash Ave.

Attention All Children and Parents in the Parish
The Women's Auxiliary has contacted Santa to ask if there is a special way the children of Queen of All Saints can communicate with Santa during the global pandemic. We have good news! Santa has authorized a special mail box to receive letters from our parish children (and children of all ages). Since he cannot visit with each child in person this year, he is asking for children to write him a letter (maybe with the help of their parents or grandparents) and drop it in the special mail box on the west wall of the rectory porch. His elves will be collecting the letters until Friday, December 18th. He will be sending a letter back to everyone who writes him in the hopes of spreading a little extra Christmas cheer.

Not sure what to write?

We can help! Santa would like to know your name, age, a few of your favorite accomplishments this year, the name(s) of your friend(s) or siblings, and a special gift you are hoping to receive. Santa will try to respond quickly with a message of Christmas cheer, and the recipe for magic reindeer food.

Parents, if you are able, we would appreciate a small donation of $5 to go towards the stationery and postage from the North Pole. Additional funds raised will go towards the WAX annual contribution to the UPP.

RESERVATIONS FOR MASS

Our Mass attendance has been increasing each week, especially the 9am Mass. We encourage everyone to make a reservation so that you are guaranteed a seat. Those without reservations may have to wait to be seated or may be turned away if we are at capacity. Please note, reserved pews will be held only until ten minutes after Mass begins. After that time those who are waiting will be seated.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

PERSONAL BENEFIT, COMMON GOOD

ILLINOIS TAX CREDIT SCHOLARSHIPS

INCREASE STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

The state program Invest in Kids offers a transformational opportunity for Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools through tax credit scholarships (TCS). Children in our state from low-income families will have access to new scholarships to attend non-public schools. Tax credit scholarships cover up to 100 percent of tuition and fees for students. Scholarship eligibility is based on a family's income. For example, a student could receive a scholarship if his/her family income is less than $72,900.

LOWER YOUR TAX BILL

Invest in Kids provides Illinois state income tax credits to individuals and corporations that contribute money to an approved Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO). SGOs are independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations that award scholarships to eligible students from low-income families. Individuals and corporations may receive a credit for their Illinois state taxes equal to 75 percent of donations to an SGO. Individuals can designate their donation to a school or subset of schools.

INVEST IN KIDS IN THREE EASY STEPS

1. APPLY FOR A TAX CREDIT AT MYTAX.ILLINOIS.GOV

Applicants are required to have a MyTax Illinois account. Visit archchicago.org/tcs for step-by-step instructions for creating an account and applying for the tax credit.

2. DONATE TO AN SGO WITHIN 60 DAYS

Once the application is approved, donate to a Scholarship Granting Organization, such as Empower Illinois or Big Shoulders Fund SGO, within 60 days.

3. DESIGNATE TO CHICAGO CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

During the donation process, donors have the option to donate to a specific Catholic school or the Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools.

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT: A FRUITFUL TIME FOR THE CHRISTIAN STEWARD

Even in a “normal” non-COVID year probably nothing challenges a Christian steward’s use of time as much as the seasons of Advent and Christmas.

Each year, we marvel at the irony of it: a time to honor and ponder God’s great mystery, the Incarnation, somehow falls prey to a time of stressful shopping (even on-line), endless “to do” lists, strained checkbooks, and guilt over what’s not getting done. Sometimes those non-stop Christmas tunes begin to grate on our senses.

How does the Christian steward answer this challenge to devote time to reflection and prayer while incorporating the best and most fruitful of our cultural traditions into what should be a very festive season?

“I just don’t have time,” is the frequent lament of the holiday season. But the Christian steward is aware that we all have the same amount of time, and to each is given an opportunity of returning the first fruits of that time back to God. The season of Advent offers just such a grace-filled opportunity.

Please consider what we can give back to our parish, in our time, talent and treasure, in response to the great gifts God has given us.

TODAY’S READINGS

“Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time will come.” - Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. Our lives are so busy, many of us are planning our time - our days, weeks, months, even years in advance.

Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to what God is saying to you.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the sacrament of baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The sacrament of baptism for infants is celebrated on Saturdays. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. Please contact the rectory for further details. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the anointing of the sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
